In this aspect I think kolam differs from rangoli. I have chosen an appropriate colour - peacock blue for the birds. The kolam is drawn with 7 by 4 dots idukku pulli or interlaced dots. The three steps in the kolam are shown in the images or pics below. The images of the birds look like a peacock putting its feathers up! Krishna Janmashtami, also known simply as Janmashtami or Gokulashtami, is an annual Hindu festival that celebrates the birth of Krishna, the eighth avatar of Vishnu. According to Hindu lunisolar calendar, it is observed on the eighth tithi of the Krishna Paksha (dark fortnight) in Bhadrapada Masa. This overlaps with August or September of the Gregorian calendar. Durga Pooja, also known as Durgotsava or Shrodototsava, is an annual Hindu festival originating in the Indian subcontinent which reveres and pays homage to the Hindu goddess Durga and is also celebrated because of Durga's victory over Mahishasur. It is particularly popular and traditionally celebrated in the Indian states of West Bengal, Bihar, Jharkhand, Odisha, Tripura, Assam and ...
